Dear Cecil - I feel when someone sends you a bag of great baking potatoes that there you are on a first name basis....
don't you?! So, Cecil, a million thanks for the great potatoes. I are going to take them, or some of them, up to Camp David where we are having a large goup this coming weekend. I can't wait to surprise George

with a real baked potato!
We'll eat the whole thing!

Most gratefully.
& love sitting next to you. Barbara Bush

THE WHITE HOUSE

May 10, 1990

Dear Cecil,

Thank you so much for your recent letter. I, too, enjoyed visiting with you when you were here. You were so thoughtful to send those baking potatoes for George -- there is no match to an Idaho baking potato.

George joins me in sending our best wishes.

Warmly,

Barbara Bush
